

Example of a testimony

I had inside of me a void of meaning that I filled in all sorts of ways such as the abuse of alcohol and drugs. Being a Hobo became something of a sport. By the age of 22 I had built up a plethora of behavioural and addictive relational problems. I was in a state of hopelessness, I wanted to change but could not.

I then heard about Jesus and the forgiveness he had won on the cross. I had an initial impression that if I accepted this message from the Bible I would lose my freedom. But I realized that my freedom was in fact a false freedom and that Jesus offered me a life pleasing to God in exchange for a life that displeased Him and gave no guarantee of happiness. One evening during a Church meeting I asked to receive prayer and asked God to forgive me for my sins, then in the moments following I placed my trust in Jesus-Christ.

Since this time, when I invited Jesus into my life and made the Bible the plumb-line standard for my life, I have been able to experience numerous promises in the Bible such as: Peace with God, inner healing, I found peace in my soul, have been able to forgive people, I have a growing relationship with God, pray for people and watch God move etc.
