2. Hands

---

@ = clap; / = slight pause; // = long pause; & = very slight pause.

Hands	@@	God gave us hands.
Hands	@@	Hands for creating things.
Hands	@@	Hands for giving.
Hands	@@	Hands for loving.
Hands	@@	Hands for defending.

But we have used our hands wrongly.

Hands	@@	Hands made for creating
	/	now destroy.
Hands	@@	Hands made for giving
	/	now take back again.
Hands	@@	Hands made for loving
	/	now hate.
Hands	@@	Hands made for defending
	/	now attack.

God opened his hands of love to a world bent on self-destruction and he embraces his whole creation with his healing hands.

But we took his hands & and nailed them to a cross saying,

"Stay there God - stay there". //

But he didn't / and he won't stay there.

He is walking along the streets of today

His marked hands are open;

Waiting, / yearning / for those who want to come.

God has a cure for his rebellious creation.

His name is Jesus.

What will you make of Jesus?

Even if you will not hear him,

Even if you will not see him,

His truth is still the same.

What about your hands? / will they reject him / or accept him?

Are you going to keep your life / or give it to him? //

What are you going to do?
